SPRING TRAINING

2 ½ HOUR INSTRUCTIONAL CLINIC FOR ATHLETES AND COACHES

Join Lifeletics instructors Saturday, Feb 9th at LeBard Park for the 2013 Lifeletics Spring Training Clinic at Seaview. Clinic offers a great opportunity for athletes to dust off the gloves and bats and prepare for the spring season! Station instruction includes hitting, fielding, pitching, baserunning, outfield and is offered by professional players and coaches - the highest quality training staff!

Seaview has invited Lifeletics to offer their 2013 Coaching Clinic to all member managers, coaches and parents.

Learn proven methods for planning practices and managing your team, as well as how to teach the fundamentals of baseball in fun, creative and effective ways. Lifeletics offers interactive, enjoyable and easy-to follow clinics, breaking down skills to a series of simple steps. Clinic includes a 2 ½ hour presentation and an instructional packet loaded with information and drills. Bring your glove and dress comfortably!

Lifeletics is the ONLY instructional staff selected to lead the RBI youth skills clinics inside and on the field of ANAHEIM STADIUM. Several current professional players will be instructing at the clinic

Coaching clinic led by Lifeletics President Dan Keller, author of Human Kinetics' publication The Survival Guide to Coaching Youth Baseball and Lifeletics publication Coaching the Beginning Pitcher.
